

Student Health Ambassador Committee (SHAC) Application 2024 Academic Year

Interested students must complete this form, and return to Steve Rose in the University Health Center Communications department or email to srose@uhs.uga.edu by NOON on Friday November 17th.

First- and second-year students are encouraged to apply.

*Applicants must be able to serve at least one year, beginning January 2024.

The Student Health Ambassador Committee (SHAC) is comprised of students from various academic backgrounds and campus-community involvements. SHAC is student-led and meets monthly at the University Health Center.

Since the health center is funded primarily by student fees, SHAC represents the student voice in health matters. The purpose of SHAC is to:

- Promote a positive and open channel of communication between UHC staff and the student body
- Increase personal knowledge of UHC operations and scope of services
- Communicate student health concerns to UHC staff
- Foster overall health and wellbeing of UGA students

Requirements:

- Attend monthly meetings starting in January 2024. Meetings are at the UHC at 5:30pm. Exact days are voted on after survey of group to identify best day
- Actively participate during meetings to brainstorm ideas for better campus health/well-being and provide feedback as needed on UHC policies and procedures
- Participation in UHC events – BeWellUGA Fest, vaccine outreaches, etc. Duties to include setting up tables, moving promotional giveaways, interacting with students and faculty as a representative of the University Health Center.

Selection Process:

- Interested applicants must complete attached application and return by Noon on November 17, 2023.
- Selected applicants may be asked to participate in a group interview (See below).

Please indicate your first and second choice for group interview date and time:

Wednesday, November 29th, 12:00pm-1:00pm _____ Thursday, November 30th 5:30pm-6:30pm _____

If selected to participate in the interview process, we will email you by Tuesday, November 21st to confirm the date and time.

Thank you for your interest in SHAC!
